E-mail Campaigns: Keeping members informed

E-mail campaigns are a great way to keep LACA members informed in between newsletters. It can call attention to upcoming events or simply provide news of interest to members. Individuals or organizations interested in communicating with LACA membership via e-mail campaign, please contact LACA Webmaster, Donna Shiroma Nakasue for guidelines and cost. Contact her via e-mail at donna@iVirtualAssist.net or by phone at (808) 271-5298.

Behind the Scenes: Donna Shiroma Nakasue

Donna Shiroma Nakasue is the daughter of LHES alum, James Shiroma. She has been working with LACA on the newsletter and website design for nearly a decade. Holding a bachelor's degree in Information Technology and 10+ years of IT experience, she resigned from her position at the US Postal Service to pursue her greatest endeavor yet: motherhood.

In addition to raising her two-year-old daughter Krislyn, Donna runs her own small business, iVirtualAssist, offering a variety of services to clients including desktop publishing, all-occasion custom photo cards, photo montage poster prints, DVD slideshows, video editing, photo scanning, contact management, correspondence, proofreading/editing, data entry, word processing, file conversions, PowerPoint presentations, website maintenance, e-mail marketing campaigns (e-newsletters), social media management, computer training, and much more. Visit her website at <http://www.iVirtualAssist.net> for a complete list of services.
